

BUSINESS SUPPORT SERVICES

Temple offers a unique location to establish your next office or corporate campus. As home to six headquarters, Temple has the experience to support corporate, shared service, data center, call center operations, and more.

SKILLED, AFFORDABLE TALENT

Temple's skilled labor pool is young, educated and growing. Thirty percent of the workforce has a bachelor's degree or more. The median age is 34.6, much younger than the national average, and the local population has grown 15% over the last 10 years. The talent pipeline is steadily fed by eight local higher education institutions.

Companies in Temple draw from higher education institutions like University of Mary Hardin-Baylor and local STEM education programs, in addition to an ecosystem of nearly 9,000 experienced employees across 470 business support services establishments.

EASY ACCESS TO MARKETS

For executives that require quick and convenient air access, Temple offers Draughon-Miller Central Texas Regional Airport, which connects to three commercial airports in under 60 minutes, adjacent to Temple's Corporate Campus area. Dallas-Fort Worth, Austin and San Antonio are all within close reach.

REAL ESTATE & ROOM TO GROW

Temple offers competitive real estate costs and plenty of space to grow. McLane Group, a holding company of industry-spanning ventures, has developed a 165-acre Class A technology and office park that has quickly become home to some of Temple's key business support services employers. There are 435 acres available for future development in the Corporate Campus area, perfect for your next move.
